Teachable object recognition, object representation, real-time object recognition.

ABSTRACT
Teachable object recognition provides a solution for a very practical need of blind people: accurate object recognition. Participants were trained to identify various objects, and their precision was evaluated through real-time object recognition. The participants were then able to identify objects in a real-world environment. The results show that the system is effective and can be used in real-world scenarios.

Susanna Abler (she/her, USA) Today at 5:51 PM
Hello! My name is Susanna Abler, I am a recent graduate from the University of Maryland Baltimore County’s undergraduate Individualized Studies program! My area of research focuses on how the aesthetics of assistive technology impact the psychological well being of the end user, more specifically in regards to the appearance of prosthetic limbs. I will be presenting a poster on my research into the process of designing custom limb covers for amputees in the first poster session!

This is my first conference so I am very excited to meet people and see everyone’s work!

Exercise consideration and respect in your speech and actions

Refrain from demeaning, discriminatory, or harassing behavior and speech

Be mindful of your surroundings and of your fellow participants

Alert assets22-leadership@acm.org if you notice a dangerous situation, someone in distress, or violations of this policy, even if they seem inconsequential.
COVID Information and Safety Plan

For official information related to COVID and travel, please see the Greek government’s official website. The Greek National Tourism Organization launched the Visit Greece app (Google Play, App Store, which includes detailed COVID-19 travel updates, as well as a map of COVID-19 diagnostic testing locations. The number for emergency assistance is 166.

- Before the conference, we ask that you conduct a COVID test (either PCR or antigen) within three days of Oct 23 and kindly ask that you not travel if the test is positive or if you feel sick.
- En route to the conference. While many airlines and rail transport no longer require masking, we ask that you use a high-filtration, closely fitting mask such as a N95, FFP2, KF94, or KN95 while traveling to the conference, including on all public transportation (which is currently mandatory in Greece).
- Vaccination status. We require that all on-site attendees have proof of full vaccination or a legitimate medical or religious exemption. Note that as of May 1, 2022, the Greek government no longer requires proof of vaccination to travel to the country.
- Masking. We will be requiring masks at all conference events. We strongly encourage a well-fitting, high filtration mask such as a N95, KF94, FFP2, or KN95 mask (see this NYTimes article). We are working to provide a backup stock at the conference; however, please bring enough supply for yourself so you can wear a fresh mask each day. As of June 1, 2022, Greece no longer requires masking indoors; however, masks are still required on public transit and in healthcare facilities (source).
- Eating/drinking. Traditionally, ASSETS provides food/drink during conference breaks, for lunch, and during social events. We are working with the hotel and our social event venues to determine takeaway options for attendees to eat outside if they prefer. For this, we suggest bringing a washable (e.g., rubbermaid, pyrex) or disposable container as we cannot guarantee that our food providers will have “togo” boxes.
- Feeling sick? If you feel sick during the conference, please send an email to conferencestaff@acm.org, take a rapid antigen test, and stay in your hotel room. When in doubt, take steps to minimize contact with others. Please bring some rapid tests with you to the conference; we will have a small number of backups.
- Reporting. All attendees at ASSETS agree to self-monitor for signs and symptoms of COVID and to contact ACM’s official reporting contact conferencestaff@acm.org if you test positive for COVID within 10 days after participating.

We will continuously monitor COVID information in Athens and international health recommendations. The above information is accurate as of 14 Oct 2022.
Masks are required at all ASSETS'22 events.

Wear a high-filtration mask: N95, KF94, FFP2, or KN95.

Or a clear mask: BendShape ClearMasks.

160 N95s Avail.

50 ClearMasks Avail.
COVID PROTOCOL

If you feel sick during the conference, email conferencestaff@acm.org, take a rapid antigen test, and stay in your hotel room.

We have 40 antigen tests

If you test positive within 10 days of ASSETS, report result to: conferencestaff@acm.org

KEYNOTE SPEAKER: HABEN GIRMA

The first Deafblind person to graduate from Harvard Law School, Haben Girma is a human rights lawyer advancing disability justice.

President Obama named her a White House Champion of Change. She’s also received recognition from President Bill Clinton, Prime Minister Justin Trudeau, & Chancellor Angela Merkel.

She received the Helen Keller Achievement Award, a spot on the Forbes 30 Under 30 list, and TIME100 Talks.

After her talk, Haben has asked questioners to join her on stage if they are comfortable. And she will be in the dining space across the hall for a meet-and-greet afterwards.
